- 4.3 Upon the order of the chairman or his deputy, resolutions may also be passed in writing, by telephone, fax, e-mail, or by another electronic medium, in particular also by video conference, or by a combination of such methods.
- 4.4 The resolutions shall be passed by a simple majority of the votes cast by the members unless the law mandatorily stipulates otherwise. An abstention from voting shall not be deemed to be a vote. In the event of a tie, the vote of the Chairman of the Supervisory Board or, if he is prevented, the vote of the Deputy Chairman, shall be decisive. This also applies to elections.
- 4.5 A resolution may be passed at the meeting with respect to agenda items that have not been communicated or have not been communicated in time if no member of the Supervisory Board objects to this procedure. In such case, absent Supervisory Board members shall be given the opportunity to either object to the procedure or to cast their vote in writing within a reasonable period of time to be determined by the Chairman. The transactions and their terms and conditions must be approved in advance by the Supervisory Board (exception: routine daily business transactions). They may not be contrary to the interests of the Company or the Group companies. The Supervisory Board's reservation of approval for related party transactions pursuant to Section 111a, 111b of the German Stock Corporation Act ("AktG") shall remain unaffected; if such reservation of approval is applicable, it shall not require approval pursuant to this paragraph (4).
- 8.5 Contracts with members of the Supervisory Board of the type specified in section 114 of the German Stock Corporation Act ("AktG") and grantings of loans to Supervisory Board members or persons closely related to them in accordance with Section 115 of the German Stock Corporation Act ("AktG") shall require the consent of the Supervisory Board.
